ROOSEVELT NIGHT, OCT. 26.

COUNTY CONVENTION NAMES JUDGES. THEN PLANS DEMONSTRATION.

Will Have 50,000 Men Marching in Manhattan and The Bronx and Great Meetings in the Garden and Outside-Patterson, Blanchard and Morris the Judiciary Ticket. For Justices of the Supreme Court-EDWARD PATTERSON and JAMES A. BLANCHARD.

For Justice of the City Court-ROBERT C. MORRIS. The Republican County Convention which met last evening in the Murray Hill Lyceum nominated the Judiciary ticket as given above, and then adopted a resolution providing for a monster rece: tion to be given in honor of Gov. Theodore Roosevelt on the evening of Oct. 26, in Madison Square Garden. This reception will be on a scale greater than anything of the kind ever attempted by the Republicans in New York county. Henry C. Taft presided at the convention Theron G. Strong said that it gave him peculiar pleasure to nominate Justice Patterson because sixteen years ago they ran for office on opposing tickets. Neither was elected. Mr. Strong said that it was the policy of the Republican party to insist on the retention in office of competent judges, and it was especially the duty of the Republicans to reward Justice Patterson for his falthful service at this time because Tammany Hall, to which the Justice would naturally look for indersement, had desired to turn him down, and had been restrained from doing so only by the public sentiment created by the Republican party. Nathan Belour seconded the nomination, which was made by one ballot cast by the Senator Elsberg put Justice Blanchard in nomination, paying a high tribute to his learning and ability. This nomination was seconded by Charles H. Murray. In the course of his seconding speech Mr. Murray said:

"There comes a time once in a while when the Republican party desires to see upon the bench not only non-partisan judges but a Republican judge. There are Republicans who can be as non-partisan as any Denocrats. Justice Blanchard is one of these." Justice Blanchard was nominated by one ballot.

Then Julius M. Mayer nominated Robert C. Morris for Justice of the City Court. The nomination was seconded by Alfred E. Ommen.

Mr. Ommen said:

"We do not want judges on the City Court who will say as one did once to the attorney for the plaintiff in an action for damages brought against a city transportation company: 'Gounsellor, vhy do you pring more evitence vhen you haf enough now to ged a pig verdig?'

Mr. Morris's nomination was made unani-

William Halpin of the Ninth introduced the resolution providing for a great Roosevelt demonstration. Here it is:

"Whereas. Throughout the great West and Northwest the inhabitants of every hamlet, village and city have assembled by day and by night, in sunshine and in storm, and in no uncertain voice have done honor to our Governor, Theodore Roosevelt, as the Republican can-Theodore Roosevelt, as the Republican can-didate for Vice-President and as a man and

Theodore Rooseveit, as the Republican candidate for Vice-President and as a man and as a citizen, and
"Whereas, In honoring him they have honored us whom he represents and for whom he stands, and by so doing have demonstrated that the efforts of our opponents to stir up sectional and social strife and to array one part of our country and people against another have ignominiously failed; and
"Whereas, These demonstrations have brought and continue to bring to us the gratifying assurances of a glorlous victory for McKinley and Roosevelt over the forces of dishonor and disorder: therefore, be it
"Resolvea, That this convention, representing the entire Republican party of the county of New York, as a testimony of our appreciation of the honor done him and us by the citizens of the Western States, and so that we may reache their heraids of victory, make suitable arrangements for a reception to be tendered flow. Roosevelt at Madison Square Garden on the 26th day of October, and that a committee consisting of the officers of this meeting, together with the officers of the County Committee and the chairman of the Executive Committee of the County Committee, be appointed with power to add to their number to carry out this resolution."

The delegates cheered enthusiastically, and there is no question that the enterprise will have the hearty support of every Republican. It is proposed to have the demonstration cover all Manhattan and The Bronx, and this will be accomplished by having a series of fourteen parades which will march through practically

STEVENSON SPEAKS IN MARYLAND. He Dwells on Imperialism and Militarism a

BALTIMORE. Oct. 11 .- Adlai E. Stevenson, candidate for Vice-President on the Democratic ticket, made two speeches in Maryland to-day. The first of these he made at the Belair fair grounds in Harford county before a large crowd. With him were former Congressmen Springer of Illinois and J. Hamilton Lewis of Washington. Mr. Stevenson's voice was not near the platform. In his speech he dwelt upon the so-called he said, were declared by the Democratic platform to be the paramount issues in this camthe Filipinos were our allies. He then said:

"The question to be decided at the coming ection is, why this war with the Filipinos? are those who will tell you that there is no are those who will tell you that there is no war. Don't you know there are 60,000 soldiers over there and that this fighting has been kept up at a cost of little less than $200,000,000? There has been a loss of thousands of lives of our brave soldiers who followed the flag. The question is, why? There are only two relations in which these people can stand to us. They must either be citizens of the United States, with representation in Congress, or be our subjects, governed by force. Let no Republican delude himself with the idea that conditions will change. Every vote for the Republican theket is a godspeed along the bloody pathway which has been inaugurated by the cresent Administration.

Mr. Stevenson and the other speakers were

Stevenson and the other speakers were quently hurried back to this city, where subsequently hurried back to this city, where they addressed a large audience to-night at Broadway Institute. The speech here was on similar lines. To-morrow Mr. Stevenson will visit the Frederick county fair, and from there be driven across the South Mountains by Col. L. Victor Baughman to Hagerstown, where he is to speak to-morrow night.

WEST VIRGINIA'S OURS.

Will Anybody Bet It Isn't?- Maryland, Indiana and Nebraska Look Well.

The members of the Republican National Committee at 1 Madison avenue have made up their minds that there is no use classing Maryland and West Virginia in the doubtful column any more. Last evening Senator Scott had a conversation over the long distance telephone with some of his friends in Parkersburg. They told him that they had got tired of hearing West Virginia talked about as a possible Democratic State. They said that they had noticed that this sort of talk usually came from men that this sort of talk usually came from men who didn't live in the State. Just to make sure that nobody in the State held that idea they chipped into a little fund of $12,000, and among the Democrats. Whenever they found an Democrat they shook the money under his nose and said:

"This State is going Recubilizan by 12,000.

e is going Republican by 12,000.

that says it is. We want to find Here's $12,000 that says it is. We want to find $12,000 that says it isn't."

There was no Democratic money, and so the

There was no Democratic money, and so the Republicans had to give it up as a bad job.

As for Maryland, it may be said that the Hon. Joseph H. Manley of Maine, who is working so hard for the success of the Republican ticket, that he has to have two desks to accommodate his correspondence and documents, has received communications from six prominent men in Muryland, each one of which was written independently of the others, and in each of which the writer expresses his confidence that the State will go for McKinley by from 12,000 to 20,000.

Reports from Indiana and Nebraska continue to be encouraging. The clearing up in Indiana has been especially gratifying to the committeeto be encouraging. The clearing up in Indiana has been especially gratifying to the committeemen who were considerably worried three weeks ago about the situation in that State. It is believed that the attitude of ex-President Harrison, as expressed in the statement given by him to the press yesterday, will aid the ticket materially. However, a sharp eye is being kept on Indiana by all hands.

WORRIED OVER THE DEBS VOTE. Chairman Jones of the Democrats Says He Is Unable to "Size It Up."

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.-Democratic leaders do not attempt longer to conceal their anxiety over the Debs vote, and Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said to-day that he believes Chicago is the strongest Debs city in the entire country. Wha worries the Democratic leaders is their absolute inability to size up the vote that will be cast for the Socialist-Democrat candidate

WORKMAN NA BS A BURGLAR HE'D GIVEN THE THIEF A CHANCE TO

STEAL, SO HE PLAYED SLEUTH. Caught the Fellow in Joe Walcott's Saloon

Second Robbery Extracted From Him. ters of either party regarding the registration Jose M. Andreini of 29 West Seventy-fifth except that it was heavy. The registration very strong and he was heard only by those three days ago while he went with his wife of 232 East Thirty-second street who is employed by John Taff of 442 Third avenue. While paign. He began by giving a history of the Schafer was at work yesterday morning, he causes which led to the recent war, in which went in and out of the basement many times and left the iron door ajar so that he would not have to ring the bell. Schafer went to the back of the house just

These people never did us any harm. There | before noon, leaving the basement door open, This gave two negroes, who had been lurking in the neighborhoor for an hour or more, the opportunity they desired. One of them sneaked in the house through the basement door while his pal stood guard outside. The negro got inside, crept softly up to the third floor, and got into Mrs. Andreini's bedroom without being detected. He shut the door, forced open the drawers of a bureau and, stuffing his pockets with the most valuable contents, stealthily with the most valuable contents, stealthily went downstairs. In the hall he pickes up one of Mr Anar ini's overcoats, but when he tried to get out by the front door he could not unlock it.

Unwilling to make any more noise than necessary the thief went down the basement stairs. He was stealing through the basement hall when one of the servants spotted him. The negro went out to the street like a flash, but the girl was after him, and at the stoop line she grabbed the coat from his arm. She saw that his pockets were stuffed with stolen property, but he ran so fast that she concluded twas useless to follow him. His pal joined him when he began to run.

R was useless to follow him. His pal joined him when he began to run.

Schafer, the mason, got a good look at the negro as he darted out of the house, and when he learned that the man was a thief he felt so badly about the robbery that last night he concluded he would turn sieuth and see if he couldn't run the man down. He surmised that the best place to catch him would be in resorts frequented by negroes. So when it became dark last night he watched in front of Joe Walcott's saloon in West Thirty-first street, near Sixth avenue. About 9 o'clock Schafer saw the two men he was looking for go into the saloon. He waited till he saw them begin a game of pool and then he hustled after a policemm. He found Policemen Hughes and Wollersen, told them his story and they went back to the saloon with him them his story and they went back to the saloon with him.

Schafer had no difficulty in pointing out the man who had got into the house and the policeman nabbed him. In the maze of black faces in the saloon, Schafer couldn't pick out the second man. The thief was taken around to the Tenderloin station where he said he was Frank Emerson. In his pocket was found jewelry bearing the initials of the Andreinis. There was a gold watch and chain, three gold studs, a pair of gold cuff buttons, a hatpin, a gold necklace, a pearl and diamond scarf pin, a chain, a gold locket, a brooch, and a pair of eye-glasses. The man had also $21 and two pawn tickets, each calling for a watch. The police value the jewelry at $500.

Detective Day of the West Sixty-eighth street station went to the Tenderloin station for the prisoner as the robbery had been committed in that precinct. Day reported later that on the way to the station the nearco confessed that he was the burglar who had robbed the house of A. J. Bent at 68 West Eighty-second street last Thursday of $200 worth of jewelry The negro said Mrs. Bent had discovered him in the house and that her butler and three servants had chased him, but he had managed to escape.

ROUSING MEETING IN LYRIC HALL Big Boost to the Republican Campaign in the Twenty-seventh District.

The Republican campaign in the Twentyseventh Assembly district received a big impetus last night at a rousing meeting held in Lyric Hall which was addressed by most of the candidates. The hall was filled by an audience which included many of the colored voters in the district, who yelled and stamped their approval of the way in which the speakers showed the fallacy of the Democratic arguments regarding imperialism and "paramount" issues of a later selection.

John R. Van Wormer presided. In opening the meeting he referred to the fact that four years REGISTRATION IN OHIO

Slightly Lower Than in 1896 but Muc Heavier Than Last Year. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 11.-The first day's registration in the cities of the State, though not as heavy as in 1896, is about one-third and Called In a Cop-Stolen Property Was greater than that of last year. No information Found on the Man and a Confession of a was received to-night at the State Headquar-street left his house in charge of two servants | booths were kept open until 9 P. M. and at 11 o'clock only sixty of the ninety to spend a short vacation up the Hudson. In precincts in this city had made his absence he had arranged to have a mason i their returns. Basing their calculations on the issues of imperialism and militarism, which, repair his stoop. The mason was H. R. Schafer | returns from these precincts, the Board of returns from these precincts, the Board of Elections figures that the total registration for the day in Columbus will be 13,320 as compared with 14,263 on the first day in 1896, a loss of ten to a precinct, and a gain of nearly thirty to a precinct as compared with 1896, when the registration for the first day was 10,742.

Owing to the failure of other cities to make report the campaign managers will be unable to figure intelligently on the significance of the registration until to-morrow, though in this city the heavy gains are in the Republican wards.

wards.

CINCINNATI. Ohio. Oct. 11.—The Republican Campaign Committee is elated to-night over the results of the first day of registration. Although the full registration will not be known to-night, it is certain that an unprecedentedly large Republican registration took place. Unusually earnest efforts were made to have voters register by the Republican committeemen, prizes being offered in some cases for the best showing by wards and precincts.

DEMAND FOR SCHOOLTEACHERS. Thirty or Forty Americans Wanted in the Philippines at $900 to $2,500 a Year, ALBANY, Oct. 11.-The leading educators of the United States are helping in the estab-lishment of a school system in the Philippines under the direction of Frederick W. Atkinson, the Federal Government's Superintendent of Instruction in the Philippine Islands. Between thirty and forty Americans to act as pals are wanted by Supt. Atkinson, at salaries ranging from $900 to $2,500 a year. Supt. of Public Instruction, has received a letter from Supt. Atkinson, dated Manila, in which

There will be need here of some dozen or "There will be need here of some dozen or more first-class primary and grammar school-teachers. We will pay $75 or $100 per month the year round. The Government will pay transportation from the teachers' homes to Manila. Have you in mind some normal school graduates of successful experience who will come here for three years to teach in a model school and at the same time assist the native teachers in learning our educational ways? We want also some eight or ten young men to become superintendents in some of the larger cities. The salaries to be paid would range from $2,000 to $2,500. My planisto establish right away here in Manila a normal school. Can you not suggest some teachers? Do you know of the right man for principal of the normal school? If necessary $3,500 would be paid. I am making my wants known to some of the leading educators of the United States. Let the candidates state to me for what salary they will come and the earliest possible date that they could give up their present positions and come to Manila.

MUST BE A SOLDIER OR PAY. Queer Tax Law in the State of Connecticut That Is Seldom Enforced.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 12.-John Thomas 'hapman languishes in the Haddam Jall for non-payment of taxes and it will take him about two weeks to work off the indebtedness. His plight is due to one of Connecticut's peculiar tax laws. The special law in the case is that the Emperor and Empress in a Latin speech, Theoretically the State collects from every man under 45 years of age, who is not exempt through military service or certain other causes, $2 a year in lieu of service in the State military. Each town is required to make the necessary enrollment annually, and to pay to the State the amount of taxes on this account indicated by the agrollment.

the amount of taxes on this account indicated by the enrollment.

Men who have to pay property taxes must also pay their military tax in order to get a receipt from the collector. Those who pay no property taxes seldom trouble themselves to pay the military tax, and it is not often that any attempt is made to collect it. Once in awhile some town collector is selzed with a spasm of virtue and takes advantage of the provision of the law which permits the selzure of the body of any man refusing to pay the tax. About a year ago several citizens of New Britain were arrested for this cause, but when they found themselves face to face with the influence of the law.

HELD A SOLDIER'S PICTURE. WOMAN, SENSELESS FROM POISON,

Her Clothing, "M. K."-She's Unable to

Tell Who She Is-May He Marie Kressey

FOUND ON A PARK BENCH. Picture, Entwined With a Lock of Brown Hair, Tied in a Handkerchief Marked, Like

Policeman Boyle found a nicely dressed woman on a bench in Central Park near the boath use yesterday afternoon apparently asleep. He tried to arouse her, but failed, and seeing a bottle marked "carbolic acid" in the grass about ten feet away, summoned an embulance from the Presbyterian Hospital. Dr. Frissell, who responded said that the woman was suffering from opium poisoning. He took her to the hospital. It was after midnight before she recovered conciousness a d at 1 o'clock this morning she was still in no condition to tell her name or anything about herself. She will recover, however the doctors say. When the policeman found the woman she held tightly in her right hand two handkerchiefs tied together. The handkerchiefs were untied at the police station and in them the police found a lock of brown hair, which was twined about a picture of a solcier in uniform On one of the handkerchiefs the initials "M. K. were embroidered with blue thread. On th other were the same initials in brown

The woman looks about 28 years old. She has light brown hair, a fair complexion and is about 5 feet 7 inches tall. She wore a line coliar, a gray cloth coat, with a cape attached. a dark skirt and tan shoes. Her hat was black trimmed with pink silk and black chiffon Her pocketbook contained $1.43 and a brooch composed of several small silver coins. There was a note in the woman's pocketbook, but the police refused to say what it contained. The contents do not in any way teachers, school superintendents and princi- help to disclose the woman's identity, they say, or to show why she should take poison.

The woman's underclothing is marked like the Charles R. Skinner, of the State Department | handkerchiefs with the initials "M. K." They are woven in red thread. The bottle found near the bench on which she was sitting contained a weak solution of carbolic acid. The police say that the bottle's contents had not been Marie Kressey of 474 Canal street has been missing from home since last Saturday morning. Her description resembles in some respects that of the woman found in the Park. Mrs. Mary Clearwater, Marie's aunt, said last night that she didn't know whether the woman in the hospital was her niece or not, but she would try to find out this morning.

KAISER AT A CURIOUS FESTIVAL. Germans in Roman Costumes Celebrate the Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Berlin, Oct. 11 .- There was a curious festival at Homburg to-day when the foundation stone of the museum in which will be housed he relies collected in the course of the restoration of the ruins of the Roman fortress called he Saalburg was laid by Emperor William The citizens of Homburg, men, women and children, were attired in the costumes of Romans and ancient Germans. They had been drilled in their parts by the manager of the Royal Theatre at Wiesbaden One of them welcomed providing for a military commutation tax. another recited a Latin ode, and a choir sang a Latin hymn Everything was Latinized.

> The Emperor somewhat marred the picturesque harmony by not donning a toga, but he endeavored to make amends by making a Cæsarean speech, in the course of which he drew the following parallel:

"As in the Far East the monarchy rises up again like a mighty knight's castle, and is now approaching completion, so on the heights of beautiful Taunus the old Roman castle, renovated by my order, springs like a phonix from the ashes, a witness to Roman power, a link in the mighty chain which Rome's legions fastened round the German Empire, an example of how the will of Casar Augustus impressed and of how he brought Roman A SODA FOUNTAIN FOR EVERY HOME

rarklets

Small Steel Capsules Filled With Liquid Carbonic-Acid-Gas

MAKE ALL DRINKS SPARKLING.

There is something about sparkle and fizz that tempts every palate. Its absence takes a vital charm from many otherwise delicious beverages. By use of SPARK-LETS any cool liquid may be given life and effervescence.

Pint bottles, $1.50 up. Pint syphon attachments, 50 cts. Quart syphons, $3.00 up. Pint SPARKLETS (10 in a box), 25c. Quart SPARKLETS (10 in a box), 40c. Mineral Tablets and Fruit Syrups Also Furnished.

All Dealers. Write for Booklets.

Compressed Gas Capsule Co., B'way & 25th St., N. Y. City.

YOUR FINGERS

will not be furt, neither will your trimmings be torn in fast-ening your dress at the shoulder or underarm seam if you use the

Snap Hook and Eye

THE HOOK OF 1900

It closes easily by a touch and stays closed, no matter how you bend or twist. When you want to remove the dress a slight outward pull on the hook side of the waist opens the whole. Made in various sizes.

If your dealer does not keep them, send 10 cts. for a sample card. Say whether WHITE or BLACK.

SNAP HOOK & EYE CO. .: 377 B'way, N. Y. City

BOER WAR A YEAR OLD.

Roberts Says He Hopes Boers Now Realize Dr. Gavin Brown Clark Loses His Seat in

BOER SYMPATHIZER DEFEATED.